

EUROCUP NEWSLETTER

6 March 2003

Nürburgring races

Just over a month to go before the first rounds of the Autosport Caterham Eurocup. Official closing date for entries is 31 March BUT... please, if you are planning to enter I need to know NOW.

The German organisers want to know likely numbers and I have to tell them next week. If you want to race in Germany, email me now. And if you want to guarantee a spot on the grid you should enter ASAP, as it may well be a case of first-come, first-served.

Don't forget that if you pay in advance for all five Euro meetings (deadline 31 March), there's a discount.

Nürburgring timetable

Full timetable attached, but here are the bits which interest you...

Friday 18 April

1250 Free practice (20 mins)

1705 Qualifying (20 mins)

Saturday 19 April

0905 Race 1 (30 mins)

1600 Race 2 (30 mins)

It is possible that there may be some testing available on the Friday morning in one of the Porsche/GT sessions. If you are interested in taking this opportunity, please email Wolfgang Becker, our man in Germany...

Wolfgang is also the man to talk to if you would like to reserve a pit garage.

Yokohama tyres

Full regulations for the championship will be issued within the week, hopefully. Tyre sizes and specs are questions that many of you have asked, so here is the definitive answer...

R400s, dry weather

As last year: Yokohama A032R Supersoft, front 185 / 60 R13 and rear 205 / 60 R13

R400s, wet weather

New for this year: Yokohama A032R Supersoft (Wet Conditions), front 185 / 60 R13 and rear 205 / 60 R13

Roadsports, wet and dry conditions

As last year, Yokohama A032R Supersoft, 185 / 60 R13 front and rear

Hurry, hurry, hurry...

Please don't mess about. Let me know NOW if you are interested in the Eurocup as a whole and SOONER THAN NOW if you want to race at the Nürburgring.

We know that there are many of you out there wanting to do the championship; as we are looking at the possibility of over-subscription it's in your own interests to get the paperwork in hand.

Keep an eye on Wolfgang's website at www.caterhammotorsport.de for latest championship news, timetables etc. Helps if your German is good!
